“THE STRENGTH OF OUR TEAM IS EVIDENCED THROUGH ITS WEALTH OF EXPERIENCE, LEADERSHIP AND CHARACTER CULMINATING IN AN UNMATCHED VISION FOR DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT.”

Biltmore Parc is being designed and developed by a team with a wealth of experience in the realm of luxury residential properties in premier communities in the United States and abroad. Since 2010, Venezuelan entrepreneur Alirio Torrealba has distinguished himself with the development of luxury residential projects in the most exclusive areas of the capital city of Caracas. He has also brought his innovative approach and commitment to quality to top brands across several markets.

To carry this elegant aesthetic throughout the interiors, the developers selected world renowned luxury avant-garde interior design firm Avanzato Design. Founder Vincenzo Avanzato has over 25 years of experience bringing together the world’s finest tastes, styles, and trends for discerning clients who desire the highest standards of excellence in creative interior design solutions, craftsmanship, and luxury. To create a property of true architectural distinction, Torrealba retained the talent of Bellin & Pratt Architects, LLC. The firm’s specialization in the Coral Gables Mediterranean style of building will ensure that Biltmore Parc fits into the historic urban context and character of the city while also establishing a sense of modernity.

Biltmore Parc also benefits from the expertise of Jose Luis Bueno and Luis Arevalo, who from the beginning have made great contributions. Both have a history of leadership in planning, development and construction in the United States. Their expertise in the implementation of successful marketing and communication activities sets them apart within the local real estate market.
